

PRAYER: Begin with a few moments of sharing thanks and praises in prayer.

Opener: How familiar are you with stress? Here is a little quiz. Complete each of these sentences with the appropriate word:

I am ready to throw in the _____.

I am at the end of my _____.

I am just a bundle of _____.

My life is falling _____.

I am at my wits' _____.

I feel like resigning from the human _____.

What do you do to release stress in your life? How often do you do this?

The Bible talks about three kinds of peace:

1. PEACE WITH GOD:

Read: Romans 5:1

We have to have peace with God before we can experience any other kind of peace. This is the foundation. And there is only one way to obtain it, and that is through Jesus Christ.

Read: John 14:6

Have you experienced this kind of peace?

2. INWARD PEACE: First we must have peace with God, then we can have the peace of God.

How would you describe inward peace?

READ: Colossians 3:15

How is it possible to have internal peace when everything around you seems chaotic?

3. RELATIONAL PEACE:

We all know from experience that relationships can be a great source of stress. For most of us, our biggest problems are people problems: getting along with the boss, the family, relatives. We deal with conflict, competition, and criticism on a regular basis. These things can rob us of peace.

READ: Romans 12:18

What are some attributes needed to "live in peace" in a dysfunctional society?

Should there be a difference in your approach to living in peace or dealing with conflict with Believers verses non-Believers?

READ: Proverbs 3:5-6

From these verses, what are things we can do to experience peace our life?

Do you ever feel that a lot of things in life are beyond your control? What can you do in such situations?

Peace comes from trusting God with our lives and with the lives of our loved ones. Why should we refrain from trying to figure life out on our own?

God never has to say, "Oops!" because He never makes a mistake. Everything that happens in our life fits into God's plan for us. He uses every situation – even the problems and heartaches and difficulties that we bring on ourselves – to work out His purpose in our life. We need to acknowledge that God is in control. Our indecision produces stress. When we trust in the Lord, He directs our paths, and He makes them straight, not stressful.

Plan for Action:

Are you lacking peace in your life? Do you fear loneliness? Fear of failure? Death? Illness? Change? Responsibility?

Pray this familiar prayer, called the Serenity Prayer:

"God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference."

The incredible by-product of your prayer will be peace.
